The Great Pacific Airshow and 5th and PCH To Hold Welcoming Ceremony for Performers and Community on Thursday, Oct. 18 at 6pm at 5th and PCH!

The 2018 Great Pacific Airshow, returning to Huntington Beach for the third year and featuring the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds, will kick off the exciting, popular Airshow with a community event beginning at 6pm on Thursday, Oct. 18 at 5th and PCH in Huntington Beach. The public is invited to this free event to welcome the Airshow performers. The evening will include a performer Q and A session, live music from The Crew 52 – the Lifeguard Band, food and official Airshow merchandise. The public is invited to bring their beach chairs and blankets for seating at the welcoming ceremony.

Hosted by the retail and hospitality plaza known as 5th and PCH, this event is an opportunity for the community to come together and celebrate the crown jewel of Huntington Beach's fall event season – The Great Pacific Airshow. Last year's show attracted more than two million people over three days as people of all ages were thrilled by the patriotic show.

VIP tickets are still available for The Great Pacific Airshow. The audio for the Airshow will be simulcast on the KFI AM 640 Radio app; download it here. For more information about the Airshow, please visit www.pacificairshow.com and follow the Pacific Airshow on social - @pacificairshow.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Come join the Huntington Beach Police Department, in partnership with SeaLegs and SeaSalt restaurants, to raise funds for Costa Mesa PD Officer Reyes' family tonight, October 2, from 5-10pm. Officer Reyes was a 13-year veteran and recently passed away at the age of 43, leaving behind a wife and three young children. His family is deeply rooted in the Huntington Beach community.

During his time as a police officer, Officer Reyes took the extra time to lead CMPD'S Explorer's Program, guiding and mentoring our future leaders and police officers. He also saved many lives with his strict DUI enforcement.

In this time of sadness, let's help a family in our Huntington Beach community. Twenty percent of the proceeds, both dine in and take out, will be given directly to the Reyes family.

There will also be a silent auction which will include some of the following businesses:

- ◆ Pelagic Fishing Gear
- ◆ Original Pizza 2
- ◆ South Coast Plaza
- ◆ Duffy Electric Boat Rentals
- ◆ Pizza Nova
- ◆ Blue Wives Matter
- ◆ Costa Mesa Police Association

On 9/12/18, Costa Mesa PD Officer Oscar Reyes, a 13 year veteran, participated in the Police Motor Rodeo in Huntington Beach and shortly after getting home, he had a heart attack. Oscar passed away at 43 years old. Officer Reyes leaves behind a beautiful family, his wife and three young children. Oscar's family and CMPD are hurting so please keep them all in your thoughts and prayers.

During his time, Oscar saved many lives with his strict DUI enforcement. He led CMPD'S Explorer's Program and has guided future police officers and members of the community. He often participated in many fundraisers, supporting other officers as well as the community. Oscar's legacy will continue to live on for years to come.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

UPCOMING NATIONAL WIRELESS EMERGENCY ALERT TEST

The Federal Emergency Management Agency, in coordination with the Federal Communications Commission, will conduct a nationwide test of the Wireless Emergency Alert (WEA) and the Emergency Alert System (EAS) tomorrow, Wednesday, October 3. The WEA portion of the test commences at 11:18am and the EAS portion follows at 11:20 a.m. The tests will assess the operational readiness to distribute a national message using the systems.

This is a good reminder that Huntington Beach residents should prepare for when a disaster happens. We highly recommend signing up for AlertOC to receive emergency notifications from public safety officials. For more information on what you can do to prepare, visit www.huntingtonbeachca.gov/PrepareHB.

INFORMATION SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Did you know that residents can report suspected violations or eyesores on private property to the Code Enforcement Division from the City website online at:

<http://www.huntingtonbeachca.gov/services/forms-applications/code-enforcement-complaint.cfm>

FIRE DEPARTMENT

ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE COMING SAT., OCT. 13!

On Saturday, October 13, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Huntington Beach Fire Department will celebrate National Fire Prevention Week at Fire Station 1 – Gothard, at 18311 Gothard Street.

Guests attending the Open House will:

- View and learn about the various types of fire apparatus such as fire engines, fire trucks, and the hazardous materials response unit
- Learn about Marine Safety operations and various equipment including the popular Personal Water Craft
- Tour the fire station
- Watch live fire and victim extrication demonstrations at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.
- Obtain safety information on this year's theme of "Look. Listen. Learn. Be Aware. Fire Can Happen Anywhere."
- Spend time with Sparky the Fire Dog, get fire helmets and fire department badge stickers
- Talk with CERT and RACES volunteers about how to prepare for emergencies
- Have numerous photo opportunities

Refreshments are prepared courtesy of the Huntington Beach Firefighters' Association, and beverages are provided by the Fire Management Association.

Join us for this very popular annual event that is loads of fun for young and old! For more information, please call (714) 536-5411.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENTFree, Easy Drop Off of Household Hazardous Waste Available in Huntington Beach

Did you know that televisions, computer monitors, fluorescent light bulbs, household batteries, automotive fluids, paints, and household cleaning products are household hazardous waste? These items, commonly found in homes, garages, and storage sheds, cannot be placed in the trash or taken to a landfill. Trash receptacles containing them will not be collected. Residents should drop off these hazardous wastes for FREE at the Orange County Household Hazardous Waste Collection Center. The center is conveniently and centrally located here in Huntington Beach at the Rainbow Environmental / Republic Services facility at 17121 Nichols Lane, Gate #6.

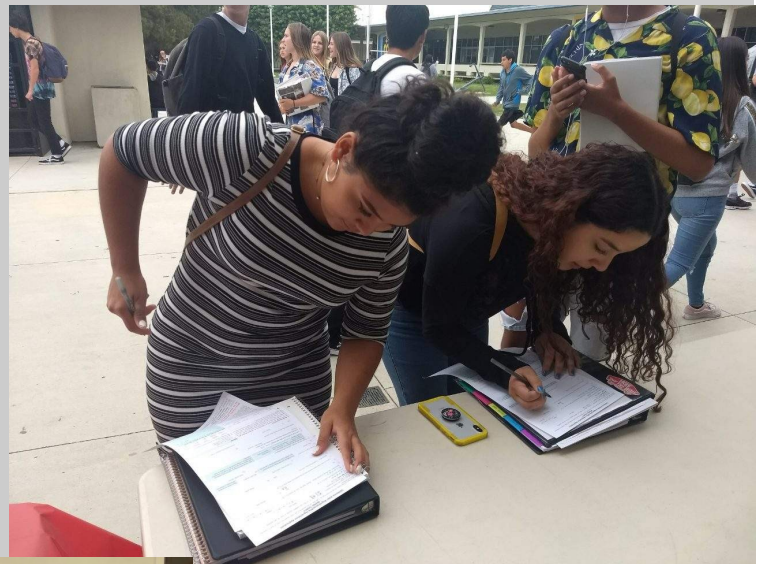

This drive-through collection site is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; closed on major holidays and when raining. Sorry, but the County is not permitted to accept waste from businesses, churches, schools, non-profit organizations, government agencies, or from residents outside of Orange County. Please visit www.oclandfills.com/hazardous or call the County of Orange at (714) 834-4000 for more information.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

Citywide Voter Registration Day!

At the September 17 City Council meeting, Mayor Posey presented a proclamation to City Clerk Robin Estanislau proclaiming Tuesday, September 25 as “Citywide Voter Registration Day.” In celebration of this nationally recognized event, students from four area high schools (Edison, Huntington Beach, Marina, Ocean View), and representatives from the City Clerk’s Office set up tables on campus during the lunch hour and offered voter registration materials to students 16 years of age or older interested in registering to vote.

Need to register? Pick up a voter registration form in the City Clerk’s Office, or register online through the Orange County Registrar of Voters website at www.ocvote.com. Important – the last day to register to vote in the November 6, 2018 election is Monday, October 22.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

The grand opening of the Parkside Estates by Shea Homes was held on Saturday, September 22. Parkside Estates is located off Graham Street between Slater and Warner Avenues. The project includes a total of 111 homes. Building permits were issued and construction began in March for the model homes that were completed and opened six months later.

To date, the project has employed approximately 200 construction workers. The approximate valuation of the improvements for the entire site is $250 million. The homes are all two-stories with four to six bedrooms and range in size from 3,496 to 4,074 square feet.

Join us at Art for Lunch, Thursday, October 4, from 11:30am-1:30 p.m. at The Huntington Beach Art Center. Bring your packed lunch into the galleries to enjoy an up-close view of the brilliant Shines Through exhibition. We provide drinks and dessert for our guests to enjoy while being seated amongst the artwork.

Shines Through explores contemporary glass works featuring 33 established and emerging glass artists. Curated by Hiromi Takizawa, the exhibition includes 2D, 3D, and installation works. Call the Art Center at 714-374-1650 or visit our website (www.huntingtonbeachartcenter.org) for more information. See you there!

OFFICE OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

FREE Lending Options Workshop

On October 16, from 6 to 8 p.m., the Office of Business Development will partner with the Orange County Inland Empire Small Business Development Center Network and the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce on a business development workshop on lending options that will be held at the Huntington Beach Central Library, 7111 Talbert Avenue.

The workshop will cover various funding options available to businesses, including short-term financing, real estate, start-up loans, lines of credit, and more. Representatives from Statewide CDC, East West Bank, and Small Business Development Corporation will be presenting and available to answer questions. Huntington Beach businesses interested in this information are highly encouraged to attend this FREE workshop. To participate, you need to register at lendinghb.eventbrite.com or call (657) 278-1801.

'Big Food Truck Tip' in HB

The Food Network was recently in Huntington Beach filming an episode of 'Big Food Truck Tip,' a new show that spotlight's food truck operators across America. The show focuses on visiting various cities and assess how three local restaurateurs operate their mobile kitchen. The lucky food truck vendor in each episode will be awarded a $10,000 "tip" based on judging criteria. Other stops this season include the Cities of Charleston, Salt Lake City, Memphis, Birmingham, and Minneapolis. The Huntington Beach episode aired Wednesday, September 26 and will run again on future dates. Please check your local listings for future air dates and times.

CPAB Meeting

On November 1, the Citizens Participation Advisory Board (CPAB) will hold its first public hearing for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding cycle of 2018/19. The meeting will review 2017-18 program accomplishments, discuss 2019-20 CPAB schedule, nominate and election of chair positions, and conduct a public hearing on community needs of low and moderate income persons for the 2019/20 Annual Action Plan. The meeting will take place in City Hall, meeting room B-8 and will begin promptly at 6 p.m.

LIBRARY SERVICES DEPARTMENT

CHESS, PAJAMAS AND HISTORICAL FICTION AT THE BRANCH LIBRARIES

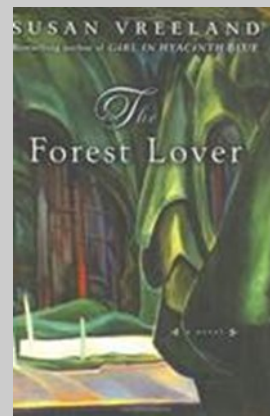

Children interested in participating in the “Oak View Branch Chess Club” are invited to the library every Friday from 3 to 4:45 p.m. The next meetings will take place on October 5 and October 12. Join our Chess Team for an opportunity to flex your brain, empower your inner genius, make new friends, and have fun! Skip the computers for a day and play some chess. New players are encouraged to attend the first Friday of the month – October 5 – for a short orientation and welcome to the game.

Of special note is the new day for the “Pajama Family Evening Storytime” at the Oak View Library. Instead of the last Wednesday of each month, the storytimes will now take place on the second Wednesday of each month, effective Wednesday, October 10 at 6 p.m. Children and their families are encouraged to wear their PJ's and join Miss Cynthia for an hour-long storytime of music, songs, finger plays, flannel board stories, and crafts – all with a Halloween theme! The Oak View branch library is located at 17251 Oak Lane in Huntington Beach. For more information, call 714 375-5068.

Heads up to fans of historical fiction – now is the time to start reading the October pick for the “Main Street Library Book Club” featuring “The Forest Lover” by Susan Vreeland. This historically accurate novel covers the career of Canadian artist and feminist Emily Carr, whose love for the forests of British Columbia made her an icon in her field. All interested adults ages 18 and over are invited to the branch on Thursday, October 18, starting at 5:30 p.m. to chat while enjoying refreshments, followed by a discussion of the book from 5:45 to 7 p.m. The Main Street Branch Library is located at 525 Main Street in Huntington Beach and can be reached at 714-375-5071.

Travel from Canada to the Mexican Gulf Coast with the first novel chosen for the new “Club de Libro en Espanol” at the Oak View Branch Library. Beginning on October 25 at 11 a.m., the Spanish Book Club will meet every Thursday until November 15 to discuss the book “Malinche” by Laura Esquivel. This work of historical fiction retells the tragic yet passionate relationship between La Malinche, a Nahua Indian, and Hernan Cortez during the Spanish conquest of the Aztec Empire. La Malinche played a key part outside of the romance as well, serving as an interpreter between the Spanish and the Indians. Join other adults 18 and up for “refrescos” at 11 a.m., followed by a “discucion” of two chapters from the book at 11:15 to 12:30 p.m. at each meeting. To register for the book club at the Oak View library, either visit in person or call 714-375-5068. Copies of the book are available in both English and Spanish at the Huntington Beach libraries.
